

Attend a free public forum and brown bag lunch:
Sponsored by the Center for Alternative Dispute Resolution

USING MEDIATION TOOLS FOR PUBLIC SPEAKING

One of the roles of our Communications & Community Relations (CCR) Office is to represent the Hawaii State Judiciary at forums, neighborhood board meetings and other public events. Tammy Mori, the CCR Manager and Judiciary Spokesperson, will be showing us examples of speakers who used mediation techniques successfully during some controversial public speaking engagements. She will also share her perspective on useful public speaking strategies that may help turn heated discussions into a more positive and productive experience for all.

Tuesday, March 11, 2014, Noon to 1:00 p.m.
Aliiolani Hale, 417 South King Street, Multi-Purpose Room (HR 101)

To reserve a seat, request disability-related accommodations, or obtain directions, please call the Center for Alternative Dispute Resolution at 539-4237.

The Hawaii State Judiciary does not warrant the accuracy or completeness of the information provided by the speaker. Nor do the speaker's remarks necessarily reflect the opinions of the Judiciary.

