

Rethinking the Carceral System: A Collaborative Approach

Law School, Cades Schuttle Classroom (Classroom 2)
Tuesday, September 17, 2019, 3:30 PM - 5:30 PM
(Registration at 3:15 PM)

The Matsunaga Institute for Peace and the William S. Richardson School of Law will celebrate the International Day of Peace and Constitution Day with a panel discussion on reimagining the carceral system.

Opening Remarks/
Moderator: Josh Green, Lieutenant Governor
State of Hawai'i

Panelists: Kat Brady, Coordinator
Community Alliance on Prisons

Monica Espitia, Director
Smart Justice Campaign, ACLU

Kahu Kaleo Patterson, President/CEO
Pacific Justice and Reconciliation Center

Justice Sabrina S. McKenna
Supreme Court of the State of Hawai'i

Bob Merce, Board Member
Native Hawaiian Legal Corporation

Ella Mojica, Program Manager
Ho'oikaika 'Ohana, Domestic Violence Action Center

Lorenn Walker, Director
Hawai'i Friends of Restorative Justice

Closing: Maya Soetoro-Ng, Associate Specialist
Matsunaga Institute for Peace

No charge for event | $6 parking in structure off of Dole Street | Light refreshments available

Contact the Matsunaga Institute for Peace at UHIP@hawaii.edu for more information