

Innovating the Future of ADR

February 23, 2022

1 - 2:30 pm (HST)

Presented by Sam Fife

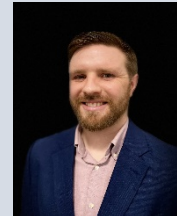

Director of Innovation for Better
Business Bureau Great West and Pacific

During this virtual brown bag session, Mr. Fife will lead an exploration of innovation models and human-centered design processes that can be applied to problem solving. With a practical look at how these creative approaches complement the tools ADR practitioners currently use, Mr. Fife will turn the focus toward how practitioners can use both to shape the evolution of ADR.

Register Here:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/Fifeinnovate>

Call CADR (808) 539-4237 with questions.

About the Speaker

With a Master's Degree in Negotiation and Conflict Resolution from the Werner Institute at Creighton University, Mr. Fife's work in conflict resolution has spanned from human rights to countering violent extremism and online marketplace dispute resolution. He has worked in Europe, Asia, and North America. Prior to joining the BBB, Mr. Fife worked in peacebuilding for Search for Common Ground in Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan.

CA DR Virtual Brown Bag Sessions – Skills for Problem Solving

In collaboration with: Conflict Resolution Alliance (CRA) • The Hawai'i State Bar Association – ADR Section (HSBA-ADR) • Spark M. Matsunaga Institute for Peace & Conflict Resolution (MIPCR), and Community Mediation Centers: Kaua'i Economic Opportunity, Inc. Mediation Program • Ku'ikahi Mediation Center • Maui Mediation Services • The Mediation Center of the Pacific • West Hawai'i Mediation Center

To request disability-related accommodations, call the Center for Alternative Dispute Resolution at (808) 539-4237 or send inquiries to Cadr@courts.hawaii.gov. The Hawai'i State Judiciary does not warrant the accuracy or completeness of the information provided by the speaker. Nor do the speaker's remarks necessarily reflect the opinions of the Judiciary.